ESTABLISHED 32 YEARS

Anniversary Services at First Presbyterian Church Today.

Today is the thirty-second anniversary of the First Presbyterian church of Wichita, and the occasion will be celebrated at the morning services, when Rev. C. E. Bradt will deliver a sermon on "Some Things That May Be Accomplished and Experienced by a Church in a Single Generation."

Rev. Mr. Bradt has collected some very interesting documents concerning the early history of the church and will read them to the congregation Sunday morning.

In the month of October, 1869, the Rev. William H. Hare was directed by Rev. Timothy Hill, district secretary for the state of Kansas, to visit this place and if the way should be clear, to open a church.

Rev. Charles Edwin Bradt, Ph. D., the present pastor, entered upon his duties for this church on June 11, 1896, and during the past six years has received by contribution $25, and by letter $25. Total assistance since organization, $50. Present membership, 125.

WAS BOUND OVER

De Witt Corry Will Stand Trial in the District Court. De Witt Corry was bound over to the district court on the charge of criminal assault on his daughter. The preliminary hearing before Judge Harvey lasted but a short time. He was fixed at $500. He could not furnish surety for this amount, so was remanded to jail.

IN BOWER OF PALMS

Miss Olive Quimby and F. E. Monte Were Married.

FEW GUESTS PRESENT

Other Events During the Week in Wichita Society Circles.

On last Wednesday evening, at 6 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Quimby, 43 South Emporia, avenue, occurred the wedding of Miss Olive Quimby to Mr. F. E. Monte. The wedding march, played by Miss Margaret Blais, commenced promptly at 6 o'clock, and the bride and groom entered the parlor unattended and stood surrounded by a bank of palms and under a canopy of smilax. Rev. J. D. Ritchey, of Chelsea, Kan., grandmother of the bride, officiated, using the full ring ceremony of that church.

The decorations for the evening consisted of pink, white and green. From the chandelier to the corners of the table hung strands of white silk ribbons draped with smilax. Bouquets of pink carnations were placed upon the table.

The menu: Raw Oysters. Turkey. Potato Croquettes. Lobster Salad. Hot Rolls. Ice Cream. Fruit Salad. Coffee. Only a few intimate friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony. Mrs. Sarah Quimby, of Chelsea, Kan., grandmother of the bride, who is ninety-three years old, was one of the guests.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Quimby, who reside in this city since October. Mr. Quimby is in the implement and transfer business at 120 South Lawrence avenue.

The bride's wedding gown was of white Swiss lawn, trimmed with lace. Mr. Monte is manager of the Battleford axle company's branch house, located in this city, and is a very industrious and prominent young man.

Mr. and Mrs. Monte left over the Rock Island for Chicago and Davenport, Ia., where they will visit for a month. After their return they will be at home at 43 South Emporia avenue.

The guests at the ceremony were: Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Adams, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Watkins, of Cleo, O. T. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Stewart, of Harper, Kan. Mr. J. B. Glenn, Mrs. C. S. Craig, Mrs. Moody, Mr. C. S. Quimby, of Lawton, O. T. Mr. E. P. Hightford, of Ponca City, O. T. and Miss Grace Murray.

DELIGHTFUL SURPRISE PARTY. A most delightful surprise party was given at the home of P. W. Murray, 1112 South Main street in honor of his daughter Ruby, to celebrate her fourteenth birthday. The guests were the members of Miss Ruby's class at school, the seventh grade of Lincoln school, with other little friends of the neighborhood. Many amusing games were indulged in and both vocal and instrumental music were enjoyed by all. A kolak picture was taken of the party by Miss McNabb. Ice cream and cake were served by the hostess and the merry makers voted Miss Ruby and her mother capital entertainers. Miss Ruby received many beautiful presents. Among the guests were Mesdames J. M. Akers, D. L. Drake, P. W. Murray, Misses Jennie Daugherty, Kate McNabb, Hilda Hensford, Ruby Murray, Daisy Burruss, Pearl Pryor, Marie Marquie, Mabel Tracy, Clara Hensford, Belle Stewart, Addie Troubaugh, Nona Aker, Anna Miller, Mollie Brant, Nina Holiday, Alma Macdoner, Elsie Johnson, Florence Drake, Mabel Spader, Maud Murray, Mabel Murray, Master Bruce Meeker.

W. R. C. SEWING CIRCLE. A few members of W. R. C. sewing circle met Wednesday with Mrs. Hudson and put in the time quilting. Owing to the distance out and the inclement weather there were but few in attendance but those who were there passed a very pleasant time and the crowd enjoyed themselves and the time quilting. With laughter at the expense of Mesdames Cullen and King, Mrs. King being the least in weight and Camille next, there were several fleshy women and when it came to tipping the scales, one lady weighed 198 pounds. Another 95. The great difference in weight being the clothes. Senator Tapp weighed both and a great deal of merriment was had over the two smaller ones at Mr. Tapp's expense. At 4:30 all enjoyed a bountiful lunch prepared by Mrs. Hudson and Bolling, consisting of pies, cakes and coffee. Those present were some of the friends of the W. R. C. and were as follows: Mesdames Hudson, Hamilton, Gray, McCullough, Bolling, Camille, Hoffman, Carr, King.

AFTERNOON WHIST PARTY. Mrs. Chas. Well entertained a party of lady friends last "Wednesday" afternoon at her elegant home, 31 South Lawrence, in honor of her sister, Mrs. J. Staudt of Fort Worth, Texas. The invited guests were entertained from 2:30 to 5 at progressive whist. Mrs. Well's expense. The carnation were much in evidence. Each guest was presented with a carnation as a souvenir and the rooms were artistically decorated with flowers and palms, white and pink predominating throughout. After whist an elegant lunch was served in four courses. Clubs being triumphs the sandwiches were cut in the form of a club and the fancy moulted ice cream served to each in different form. The honors at whist were won by Mrs. Joe Baker and Mrs. Frank Bart. The invited guests present were Mesdames Wm. Schnitzer, John Knudsen, M. W. Dorsey, Chas. Schnitzer, Frank Bart, Joe Baker, Henry Schnitzer, Ed Taylor, Frank Burdick, Fred Smyth, Gus Bauer, P. Halden, Miss Teska Schae.

A SUCCESSFUL RECEPTION. One of the most successful events of the week was the reception given by Mrs. P. B. Shuman and Mrs. M. J. Shuman at the home of the latter on Fairmount. These ladies were assisted by Miss Pearl Zihlman. Many progressive games were played, thus furnishing amusement for all. Mrs. Shuman and Mr. Shuman favored the guests with several musical selections, which greatly interested the company. A photograph in the hall was another feature of enjoyment during the evening. At 1 o'clock dainty refreshments were served. As the two hours of the morning session drew near the guests departed, feeling that Mesdames Shuman and Shuman were most delightful entertainers. Those invited were: Mesdames and Messrs. G. F. Phillips, G. O. Kneeling, P. J. Hart, J. H. Ritter, B. A. Wright, A. T. McElvay, E. D. Russell, M. J. Shuman, J. A. Bennett, T. A. Leonard of Miles, J. E. Stout, D. F. Richardson and F. H. Shuman. Mesdames and Mrs. Hambrick, Mesdames R. A. Miller, J. A. Hail, G. T. Baker, E. O. Miller, W. J. Wiest, G. Gerald Stout, G. E. Butler, G. T. Miller, B. O. Kilian of Augusta and F. T. Hildreth. The Mesdames Helen Wright, Nellie Ritter, Madeline Stout, Caroline Bailey and Pearl Phillips.

CONGREGATIONAL CLUB PARTY. The fancy dress party given by the Congregational club last Wednesday evening at Harman's hall proved a most delightful affair and those participating were entertained in the pleasant manner for which this popular club has a chosen ability. Consensus from the multitude of the sublime were quite in evidence and music and games in abundance added to the pleasure of the evening. Among the winning prizes were Misses Hazel Foote, Lillian Fitzpatrick, Charlotte Mueselman and Mr. Fred Jones. Among the musical features were several vocal selections by the club's Army and Navy quartet, consisting of Messrs. Götty, Myers, Evans and Bonner; piano renditions by Misses Helen Stanley, Hazel Foote, Florence Mock, Lillian Fitzpatrick and piano duets by Misses Baird, Hamlin and Roy Götty. Dainty refreshments were served at a late hour, after which a large flash-light was taken of the party. Among those participating with characters represented were: Misses Helen Stanley, Alice of Old Vincennes, Florence Mock, Janice Meredith, "Francis Saunders, Margaret, a clever Fitzpatrick, author girl; Eva Mueselman, Columbian; Helen Ryne, Spanish Girl; Lillian Robertson, Little Bo-Peep; Hazel Foote, Japanese Girl; Mabel Smith, a society belle; Lottie Mueselman, a Red Cross Girl; Mabelle Putz and Grace Bladon, Red White and Blue girls; Mesdames Homer Harlan, Captain Dreyfus; Carl Oldfield, Emperor of Japan; Roy Götty, George Washington; Fred Bauer, Michael; Fred Jones, Napoleon Bonaparte; Frank Hayworth, Uncle Sam; Carey Hildmer, Rough Rider; Charles Jones, Ole Olsen; Clarence Bladen, a Comopolitan; a clever Fitzpatrick, author girl; Mabel Hamlin, Little Boy Blue; Charles Myers and Clyde Evans, Jack Tars from the Maine.

WITH MRS. DANIELS. "The Jolly Days" met with Mrs. C. A. Daniels, 235 South Tenth avenue, on Tuesday afternoon and enjoyed a few hours of delightful chat. Mrs. Daniels is a clever Fitzpatrick and piano duet and the members of the club were royally entertained.

THIRD VIOLIN MUSICAL. On Saturday afternoon the charming home of Mrs. L. W. Clapp was opened to the ladies of the city for the third violin musical of the season. The beautiful rooms of the commodious mansion presented a very charming and animated appearance during the social half hour which preceded the unusually interesting program.

A series of three short poems by Robert Schumann, formed the introductory violin selections and the violinist, Mrs. Schumann, in style, concise, well-ward, technically finished to a high degree and with the true charm of this master's manner.

The Andante and Träumerei in the second number are particularly melodious and full of sentiment, two of the romantic stories, which reflected the varying moods of the artist, and the violinist, Mrs. Schumann, in style, concise, well-ward, technically finished to a high degree and with the true charm of this master's manner.

By special request, the Andante movement from Mendelssohn's Concerto in E Minor, was repeated from a former program. This number was particularly well received as it is a piece suited to Mr. Staples' manner, while the accompaniment was very brilliantly and artistically played by Mrs. E. K. Kato, who is especially gifted in her appreciation of this part.

The second part of the program was devoted to the works of Franz Schubert, that great master of the romantic school of music, whose life was the briefest and saddest chapter in the history of music. The unfinished Symphony in B Minor, as Schubert's most individual creation and is a parable of his life, abruptly terminated, just as its beauty and significance was coming to be understood. Mr. Staples played this Symphony with beautiful quality of tone and with fittingly disciplined restraint. The "Ave Maria" was interpreted with that spirit of devotion in which it was conceived, and the finale number, "Moment Musical," an exquisitely forceful little fragment, was played with entirely happy effect by Mr. Staples and his talented young pupil, Miss Fanny Leighton.

INTENSE SUFFERING

From Dyspepsia and Stomach Trouble.

Instantly Relieved and Permanently Cured by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

A New Discovery, But Not a Patent Medicine.

Dr. Redwell relates an interesting account of acute stomach trouble and chronic dyspepsia by the use of the new discovery, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. He says: "The patient was a man who had suffered, to my knowledge, for years with dyspepsia. Everything he ate seemed to sour and create gas in the stomach. He had pain like rheumatism in the back, shoulder blades and limbs, fullness and distress after eating, poor appetite and loss of flesh. The heart became affected, causing palpitation and sleeplessness at night. "I gave him powerful nerve tonics and blood remedies, but to no purpose. As an experiment I finally bought a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at a drug store and gave them to him. Almost immediate relief was given, and after he had used four boxes he was to all appearance fully cured. "There was no more acidity or sour, watery tongue, no bloating after meals, the appetite was vigorous and he had gained between 25 and 30 pounds in weight of solid healthy flesh. "Although Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are advertised and sold in drug stores, yet I consider them a most valuable addition to any physician's line of remedies. As they are perfectly harmless, they can be given to children or invalids in any condition of the stomach with perfect safety, being harmless and containing neither fruit and vegetable residues, pure pepsin and gastric acid. "Without any question they are the best, most effective cure for indigestion, bloating, constipation and all derangements of the stomach, however slight or severe."

"One good turn deserves another and because Wine of Cardui restored me to health I have been glad to speak a good word for it whenever I have had an opportunity. About two years ago I suffered such pain every month from three to four days that I dreaded the time. The doctor said there was a misplacement and that the only real relief laid in an operation and advised me to have one performed. I dreaded the ordeal and speaking of it to my aunt she said, 'why don't you try Wine of Cardui first?' I took it and it cured me of ulceration. Much relieved and full of hope I bought another bottle and after taking the medicine for a short time my general health improved and thirteen bottles completed the cure. It is a grand medicine for women."

lovelier and more beautiful, because the very presence of health means pure blood, sparkling eyes, a clear complexion and a grace of physical poise that is a natural response to a merry laugh and a sunny disposition.

Mrs. Donoho, of Handley Station, Texas, has had a happy experience with Wine of Cardui, of which her husband writes as follows: "I must write and thank you for what your Wine of Cardui has done for me. It has given me a beautiful, healthy, rosy-checked wife. She looks so much younger and prettier that my friends very often ask me 'Was that your wife whom you were with?' When I tell them it was they are surprised. I always tell them Wine of Cardui made the change. I expect to keep Wine of Cardui in my house always."

Wine of Cardui has been relieving woman's ills for over 75 years, and it has a record of cures that makes it supreme as a reliable remedy for menstrual disorders, bearing-down pains and all the debilitating vital drains which rob a woman of her beauty and health, then her reason and life itself. It is said to be a charming girl deprived of her natural charms which bind her to all that is worth living for.
